

Spittal Primary School

November 2016

Newsletter

Halloween is always a spooky affair at Spittal Primary—and this year was no different! The children all looked fabulous in their Halloween costumes - a big thank you to all the parents for their creativity and effort. The children really enjoyed the Halloween disco and had lots of opportunity to dance, dance, dance!

Thank you to those families for the sponsor money which has already been sent in to school. So far we have raised £1005 for our school fund!

A HUGE Thank you for your support!

To see photographs of the Hallow'een Sponsored Disco and any other Spittal Primary Events, please visit our school website www.spittal-pri.s-lanark.sch.uk

Harvest Assembly A very big well done to our Primary 4/5 class who led our Harvest Assembly. Thanks for your generous food donations which have now been passed on to the Lodging House Mission to help those less fortunate.

Primary 7 will be respectfully led our Remembrance Assembly on Wednesday 9th November. Primary 7 have also been selling poppies in classes. All donations will be sent to the Poppy Scotland Appeal.

Book Fair - The book fair held during Parents Night week was very successful and we sold in excess of £700 worth of books. This gives us a commission of £440 to spend on books for our library - Thanks to everyone who bought a book!

Parents Night - we had a fabulous turn out of parents for our recent Parent's Night and the teachers enjoyed sharing the successes of your child's learning with you. Thank you to those of you who completed a questionnaire about you views on the school. We take on board any comments and suggestions and will strive to make further improvements. There is a suggestion box in the school foyer if you have any further suggestions for improvement.

School Photographs - Monday 14th November

The photographer will be in school to take individual photographs of children in P1 - P7. Family group photographs can also be taken if requested. Please look out for the letter re photographs coming out soon.

Mon 21st November - Anti Bullying Week

There will be a whole school focus on anti - bullying during this week with lots of class discussions and activities to promote respect, tolerance and co - operation as well as talking to the children about what to do if they are being bullied.

Hot Chocolate Homework Club

All parents and children are welcome to drop in to our Homework Club on a Monday from 3pm - 4pm in the dinner hall - get the homework done and have some well - earned Hot Chocolate and biscuits!
